

The entropy of certain tilings of rectangles and isosceles triangles can be solved exactly, by means of Bethe's Ansatz.

They include quasi-crystalline phases of 8, 10 and 12-fold rotational symmetry.

The connection with the Yang-Baxter equation has not been established in all cases.